Class Description

Principles of Agriculture, Food, and Natural Resources prepares students for careers in agriculture, food, and natural resources. This course allows students to develop knowledge and skills regarding career opportunities, personal development, globalization, industry standards, details, practices, and expectations. To prepare for success, students need to have opportunities to learn, reinforce, experience, apply, and transfer their knowledge and skills in a variety of settings.

Classroom Rules and Procedures

1. Respect your peers, teacher, and classroom.
2. Come to class on time.
3. Come to class prepared with required materials (Chromebook, pencil, binder/folder).
4. Participate in classroom activities and discussions.
5. Turn work in on time!
6. Have fun!

Retake Policy

- Only grades less than 70 can be made up. The make up process is a shared responsibility between teachers, students, and parents.
- Makeup Opportunity Criteria as follows:
 - A minimum of 1 make-up opportunity per assignment
 - Assignment/Test make up must be done within five days of the assignment return date
 - Make ups must be done outside of the regular school day Make up grade will be no greater than a 70, if the original and the reassessment are both below a 70, the higher of the two will be recorded in the gradebook.

- Refusal to complete an assignment will result in a 0 and make-up policy applies.

Make-up Work

- Students are responsible for getting any work they have missed due to absences. Students will get their work from the Absent Work Station in my classroom that is separated into Week 1-6 and is organized by days (Monday-Friday). If students have questions on what they have missed they should ask!
- Students are allowed one school day for every day of class missed to make up any work missed. If students do not complete the work in the time allotted the late work policy will apply. Students will not be required to take a quiz or test on the day returning to class after an absence if the quiz or test was announced during the absence.

Late Work

- All assignments are due as directed by the teacher. Assignments turned in late will be graded like all other papers; however, the maximum grade that can be earned is a 70. Late assignments will be accepted within 5 school days, not to exceed the end of the grading period.
